170 studies for trombone written by jaroslav cimera is a logical second volume to the famous cimera hovey method for trombone or any other good instruction book this book of original exercises is the sequel to the first book in this series the etudes are a mixture of the rhythmic pattern and solo type problems of rhythm technic and range are dealt with logically and progressively and with ample preparation in the case of the trombone special emphasis was placed on writing exercises which would allow economy of slide movement through the use of substitute positions the book is intended to be supplemental in nature and should be a value to the student by supplying additional material in certain developmental areas encountered in the student s regular method book the second book of practical studies is designed to logically extend the techniques already presented in the first book and also to introduce and develop new techniques and rhythms that will offer a challenge to the intermediate student through the use of slightly more difficult and more extended studies it is hoped that the material included in this book may more fully develop general musicianship and more feeling for style and interpretation and thus act as a foundation for solo literature the belwin student instrumental course is a course for individual instruction and class instruction of like instruments at three levels for all band instruments each book is complete in itself but all books are correlated with each other although each book can be used separately all supplementary books should be used as companion books with the method guide to the euphonium repertoire is the most definitive publication on the status of the euphonium in the history of this often misunderstood and frequently under appreciated instrument this volume documents the rich history the wealth of repertoire and the incredible discography of the euphonium music educators composers arrangers instrument historians performers on other instruments and students of the euphonium baritone horn tenor tuba etc will find the exhaustive research evident in this volume s pages to be compelling and comprehensive contributors are lloyd bone brian l bowman neal corwell adam frey marc dickman bryce edwards seth d fletcher carroll gotcher atticus hensley lisa m hocking sharon huff kenneth r kroesche r winston morris john mueller michael b o connor eric paull joseph skillen kelly thomas demondrae thurman matthew j tropman and mark j walker
